Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in.GAO, in its continuing effort to improve the effectiveness of the Governments collection operations reviews agency operations periodically. One such review involved part A of the Medicare program which covers in-patient hospital services, post-hospital care in skilled nursing facilities, and care in the patients home. The Bureau of Health Insurance administers this program. The law authorizes the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare to contract with intermediaries to pay hospitals and institutions for beneficiaries care. The Medicare program became effective July 1, 1966. Under Medicare reimbursement principles, intermediaries pay interim payments, not less than once a month, to providers of services for the reasonable cost of such services to beneficiaries. Providers submit cost reports to account for all costs incurred. GAO found that overpayments arise because interim payments are too high, providers fail to file cost reports, or providers bill for excessive or noncovered services to beneficiaries. Uncollectable payments are referred to GAO for possible referral to the Department of Justice for enforced collection proceedings. GAO was concerned that overpayments made during the early years of the program would be barred...
