Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Truth Will Out: An Emergence From Chaos and Subterfuge Into Light and Reality With artificial handicraft, distorting Nature s smile, Supplanting for what is natural his dry outlandish style! Yet insignificant is Man, a tiny ephemeral mote, His presence pon the Earth a bubble pon the Sea afloat, A tiny wind-blown molecule, an atom on this sphere, A grain of earth possessed of life, and which he holds most dear. Compared with earth in form, he is a teeny grain of sand, Entirely lost to view - a grass-shoot pon a prairie land. And if the Human race were swept from off this sphere entire, Swept out, stamped out of existence by a whelming flood or fire, T would not affect this whirling ball in any form or way, The world would still turn bout the sun, we d have our night and day, The Sun would rise far in the East and set far in the West, The day bring thoughts of ceaseless toil, the night bring peace and rest. Would st thou this...
