Penguin Books Ltd, United Kingdom, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 156 x 108 mm. Language: N/A. Brand New Book. The colossus of crime leaned over to the little rustic priest with a sort of sudden interest. You have heard of it? he asked. Where have you heard of it? Well, I mustn't tell you his name, of course, said the little man simply. He was a penitent, you know. He had lived prosperously for about twenty years entirely on duplicate brown-paper parcels. And so, you see, when I began to suspect you, I thought of this poor chap's way of doing it at once. Began to suspect me? repeated the outlaw with increased intensity. Did you really have the gumption to suspect me just because I brought you up to this bare part of the heath? No, no, said Brown with an air of apology. You see, I suspected you when we first met. It's that little bulge up the sleeve where you people have the spiked bracelet. How in Tartarus, cried Flambeau, did you ever hear of the spiked bracelet? Oh, one's little flock, you know! said Father Brown, arching his eyebrows rather blankly. One of detective fiction's most idiosyncratic and best-loved characters, G. K. Chesterton's Father Brown is both a diminutive, genial clergyman and a master sleuth. In these two stories involving the ingenious, unobtrusive priest, a murdered man denounces his killer with his dying breaths, and a brilliant French inspector follows a trail of gentil carnage across London. This book includes: The Strange Crime of John Boulnois and The Blue Cross.
