Excerpt from Dedication of the Lane Medical Library, Leland Stanford Jr. University, San Francisco, November 3, 1912 On November 3, 1912, the building intended to house the Lane Medical Library of Leland Stanford Jr. University, in connection with the Medical Department of the University, was formally dedicated at San Francisco. Addresses were given on that occasion by Mr. Timothy Hopkins, President of the Board of Trustees, by Dr. Emmet Rixford, Professor of Surgery, and by David Starr Jordan, President of the University. These addresses are included in this publication. Introduction President Hopkins presided and opened the meeting with the following words: We meet to dedicate this handsome library building to the cause of education and to humanity, and in behalf of the Board of Trustees of Stanford University, I welcome you. The Reverend Bradford Leavitt will open the exercises with prayer. After the prayer, President Hopkins introduced Dr. Rixford as follows: It is no severe strain upon the imagination to believe that, as time rolls on, the three great metropolitan cities of the United States will be...
