Reviews

Certainly, this is the greatest work by any author. It can be written in easy words and phrases rather than confusing. I am just happy to let you know that this is actually the greatest ebook we have study inside my individual daily life and may be the greatest ebook for at any time.

Excerpt: . . . so much as Commissions were granted ready to have been sealed, for the leavying of men in sunProvinces z but herein nothing prevailed so much as the tears of his mother, who without the Army of England cannot consent to grow to any open dealing. de la Mog with special letters from the King, (Lm otheg and the D. of Alansbn, who with the Ambassador resident hath here most earnestly sued to us touching the marrying with the D. of Alanson-, and upon the report of your s h to the King upon the two Letters we lately sent unto you, there appeareret some mistaki either by you or by the King. For in the Kings letter to the French Ambafliiir it is conceived that you should say, that we did will you by our first letter to declare that the difference of the age of the Duke from ours was stich, as it was not possible for us to accord thereto; and et you should upon our second lettet propound a motion of an enterview. ch two declarations cannot but contain some absurdity, as we think yourself can conceive. p And therefore we have answered, that either you rriistook our mind, or out first letters, and so misteported them, as we cannot think you did, or else the King mistook your words; and that where you were by us commanded to say, that the cause was very difficile (which we think you did) for ib do out letters...
