Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Notes on Dr. Scott's Bible and Politics These pages are given to the public under the following circumstances: In the course of my regular pulpit ministrations, I delivered four evening lectures on the propriety and importance of placing the Bible in the Common Schools of California. These lectures were published first in the Pacific, and afterwards in pamphlet form. The reasons assigned by me for their delivery and publication were in these words: It may be asked, why discuss the matter at all? We do it for two reasons. First, to direct the attention of the community to it. It is a lamentable truth that, with here and there an exception, California has no Bible in her Public Schools; she invokes not the name of God in her legislative halls, and her Sabbath law has been wrested from her by her Supreme Court. This state of things exists not, as some allege, because the majority of the citizens are infidel or papist, but because the public mind is not aroused to the subject. Our second reason is a sectarian one. In common with all the other branches of Christ's House, the Presbyterian Church is forming its character on the Pacific coast - and what shall be its type? Shall it bear the noble form of the old church at home, which has ever been found in the van, when stout battle was to be fought with infidelity and popery, in defense of the Bible in schools, in defense of laws for the better observance of the Sabbath, and for the suppression of Sunday mails? Or shall it lower its standard, and assume a...
